

4-11-1969

April 11 1969

Friday Bulletin

Follow this and additional works at: <http://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin>

Part of the Educational Leadership Commons, Educational Methods Commons, and the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Friday Bulletin, "April 11 1969" (1969). Friday Bulletin. Paper 132.
<http://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin/132>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the CSUSB Archives at CSUSB ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in Friday Bulletin by an authorized administrator of CSUSB ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact scholarworks@csusb.edu.

CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGE, SAN BERNARDINO

The BULLETIN

April 11, 1969

"KINETIC ART"
TICKETS ON SALE;
OPENING TONIGHT

Tickets for "The Kinetic Art," a three-night series of prize-winning short films, are available at three locations for the first showing tonight at 8 in the Physical Sciences Lecture Hall.

Advance tickets for the series can be obtained in the Activities office, L-122, or from members of the Lectures and Public Affairs Committee at a table in the Cafeteria patio area. Series tickets cost $2.50 each for College faculty, staff and students, and $4.00 for the general public.

Individual-performance tickets will be available at the door of the Lecture Hall tonight. These cost $1 for College personnel and $1.50 for the public.

"The Kinetic Art" continues on Friday, April 25, and Friday, May 9.

COLLEGE ADDS Four $600 scholarship grants have been awarded to SCHOLARSHIPS the College by the Riverside Foundation, President John M. Pfau announced. The $2,400 is from a trust fund from the estate of the late Leon S. Heseman.

The grants will be awarded for 1969-70 to four undergraduates with academic ability, financial need and good citizenship. The Admissions and Academic Standards Committee will select the recipients.

WOODROW WILSON The latest national listing of Woodrow Wilson
FELLOWS INCLUDE Fellows who are currently engaged in college
FOUR AT CSCSB teaching includes four CSCSB faculty members.

They are Drs. Elliott Barkan (History), Peter Schroeder and Edward White (English), and Lawrence Sneden (Sociology).

Dr. Sneden, currently on leave at San Fernando Valley State College, plans to return to CSCSB this fall. He recently received his Ph.D. from the University of Michigan. The other three Woodrow Wilson Fellows are Harvard University graduates.

Dr. White, coordinator of the English Department, serves as the campus representative of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation.

ROSS DRAGO
WILL LECTURE
NEXT TUESDAY

Sculptor Ross Drago, who brought ments in Art Technology project San Bernardino area, will on "Explanations of Experi-
in Art and Technique"
11:30 a.m. Tuesday.

the Experi-
to the lecture
ments
at
April 15.

All
College personnel
are invited to the lecture in the Physical Sciences Lecture Hall. There is no admission charge

Drago is expected to explain the use of technology in the development of imagery and art, said William Haney, assistant professor of art and chairman of the Lectures and Public Affairs Committee.

A graduate of the University of Buffalo, Drago developed his interest in the use of light during his undergraduate study in electronics.

TWO NEW FACULTY
ADDED TO STAFF

Two new part-time faculty members have been added to the Social Sciences Division due to increased spring enrollment and the demand for psychology and sociology courses.

Mrs. Kathleen P. Moore of Chino has been appointed as lecturer for the Spring Term to teach a new course in social psychology.

Mr. Frederick B. Meeker of Los Angeles has been appointed to teach an advanced general psychology course this spring.

SCIENCE DAY POSTPONED; Science Day, originally scheduled for RESCHEDULED FOR FALL tomorrow, has been postponed until next November, according to Dr. Arlo Harris, chairman of the event. The large number of schedule conflicts between the high schools and the College made the postponement necessary.

FIVE STUDENTS NAMED
TO ETHNIC COMMITTEE

Five student representatives have been named to the new Ethnic Studies Program Committee.
They are Alejandro Hernandez, Barbara James, Ramon Navarro, Jerry Rohde and Doyle Washington. Maria Aguiar is an alternate.

* SYMPATHY - The sympathy of the College is extended to David Randolph *
* (Natural Sciences) upon the death of his father, who was * * killed in an automobile accident recently. *

CSCSB BOWLING LEAGUE
HONORS TOP BOWLERS

The College Bowling League ended its season last Wednesday by awarding trophies to its top bowlers at an awards dinner.

Series scratch winners were John Nagel (625) and Cathy Lucas (460); individual game scratch winners were Jim Ditto (242), Joanna Fuller (176) and Sharon Ward (176). Series handicap winners were Berk Stevenson (692) and Dorothea Floyd (627); individual game handicap winners were Wick Hall (263) and Jessie Gispén (236).

Most Improved Bowler awards went to Jim Barnes, Sheila Melcher and Sharon Ward. Members on the winning team were Joanna Fuller, Larry Hutchinson, Jim Ditto and Fred Sayle.

WINTER HONOR
STUDENTS NAMED

Fourteen students were named to the President's List for earning straight A's for the Winter Term: Michael B. Beeson, Linda Bellus, Michael E. Brown, Theresa M. Browne, Barbara K. Courson, Lynette Day, Roberta Hargrove, Stanley Hodge, Elizabeth Jacobson, Susan Lenarz, Robert Richardson, Cynthia Thompson, Joan Wall, Frederick Waters.

Forty-two students were named to the Dean's List for a B+ average.

HEW SEEKING RECRUITS
FOR INTERN PROGRAM

The Office of Health, Education and Welfare is seeking college graduates for its 1969 Financial Management Intern Program. Ten interns will be selected for the two-year program designed to develop financial managers and public administrators. A year's postgraduate study in public administration, with tuition, fees and books paid, plus a $5,732 salary, is included the first year; second year is spent in Washington at a salary of $6,981. For further information contact the office of Associate Dean, Academic Administration, Room A-192.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Frederick Damaske (Political Science) has been elected vice president of the Redlands-Yucaipa Chapter of the California Association for Neurologically Handicapped Children.

REMINDERS . . . A representative of the Cal State Colleges International Programs, Mrs. Barbara Dowden, will be on campus Monday, April 14, at 11 a.m., A-121 to interview applicants and discuss the International Studies Program with interested students.

+

. . . Faculty members are encouraged to inform the Publications office when students receive graduate fellowships.

+

. . . Beginning today, orders may be placed for CSCSB rings (if rings ordered today, $3 discount) and graduation announcements at the Bookstore until the end of April.

+

. . . (Reminders continued on Page 4)

REMINDERS - continued . . . Next Wednesday, April 16, a College Library tour will take place at 2:30 p.m. All campus personnel are invited.

+

. . The deadline for submitting entries for the Student Book Collection Contest has been extended to Friday, April 18. Entries should be submitted to Jeanette Bernthaler.

+

A "Roaring Twenties" dance will be held tonight at 8 p.m. in the Little Gym; admission free; everyone welcome. The "Political Zoo" will provide the music. 1920 costumes are optional.

+

A color film, "Miss Goodall and the Wild Chimpanzees," will be shown this afternoon at 1:30 in B-101. This is a delightful film and everyone is invited to attend. Admission is free.

+

DIRECTORY Add:	273	MATUSCHKA, Ernest P. Verla	Lecturer,
CHANGES		1649 N. Millard	Education,
		Rialto 92376	PS-218
	-	MEEKER, Frederick B. Margit	Lecturer,
		3675 Roseview Ave.	Psychology
		Los Angeles 90065
	-	MOORE, Kathleen P. James	Lecturer,
		15091 Rolling Ridge	Sociology
		Chino 91710
	390	PAYNE, Clyde L. Jean	Lecturer,
		1894 W. 9th St.	English,
		Upland 91786	A-189

+

Change: John E. Hafstrom - new phone: TU 7-3046

+

No Longer With College:

Daisy Druhl, Library.

Frank Baker, Jr., Custodian in B-Building for 18 months, has resigned to join the Santa Fe Railroad
as machinist under a federal job program.

Bernard Fas, Natural Sciences.

Shirou Kunihiro, Social Sciences.

JOB OPENINGS: Cler. Asst. IIB in Humanities Division. Good typing and shorthand required. Salary $446-543/mo.

Cler. Asst. IIA - part-time temporary until June 30 in Institutional Research. Salary based on $415-505/mo.

Inquire at Personnel office for further details.